

World Bank user permissions for SSBN Global Flood Hazard Data

The SSBN Global Flood Hazard data ('the Data') has been licensed by the World Bank for internal use only. The Data may not be published or shared beyond the World Bank without written permission from SSBN Ltd ('the Firm'). The following terms were agreed by the World Bank and SSBN Ltd in section V(6) of the Terms of Reference (TOR) for contract # 7181445 dated November 24th 2016:

"The Firm will grant the World Bank a one-off perpetual license to all delivered global flood hazard layers ('the Data'). This license does not include any entitlement to updates or upgrades to the Data from the Firm. The World Bank will not resell the Data, nor make the Data publically available. The Data will not be shared with sub-contractors, external consultancies or any other firms or individuals beyond the World Bank without written specific agreement from the Firm. The Data will be hosted on the Innovation Lab GeoNode for implementation in Think Hazard! and made available for the sole use of World Bank teams. The Firm will retain all Intellectual Property Rights in the Data. The Firm will provide a full clause of caution that accompanies the Data and describes the limitations and uncertainties surrounding the Data."

If you have any queries regarding permitted use of the Data, please contact c.sampson@ssbn.co.uk